THIS DAY IN NATURALS HISTORY

On September 11, 2015, the Northwest Arkansas Naturals finished a North Division Championship Series sweep of the Arkansas Travelers, winning the ballgame 6-3 for a 3-0 series win ... the First Half North Division Champions were backed by two-hit efforts from Adalberto Mondesi, Lane Adams and Hunter Dozier, with Adams doubling twice and Bubba Starling hitting the game's only homer in the fourth inning.

3-2, Watcha Gonna Do... The Naturals dropped Thursday night's contest against the Tulsa Drillers, 3-2. Tulsa got on the board in the second inning, and the Naturals responded with a run in the bottom of the fourth. Spencer Nivens homered on a line drive to right on the first pitch of the frame to even the score at one apiece. The lefty connected on his ninth long ball of the season. The Drillers took the lead back in the fifth with a pair of runs. Northwest Arkansas cut the deficit to 3-2 in the seventh on Acosta's RBI double to plate Canyon Brown. Acosta collected a career-high four hits in as many trips to the plate. Picard entered out of the bullpen in the sixth to make his Double-A debut, and he spun four perfect frames. The right-hander set down all 12 Drillers he faced and struck out five batters in his first game as a Natural. Acosta picked up his fourth hit of the evening to represent the tying run in the ninth, but NWA failed to score and fell 3-2. Northwest Arkansas searches for its first win of the week-long series on Friday evening, with Steven Zobac on the hill for the Nats.

Rack 'em Up... Northwest Arkansas pitching recorded 10 strikeouts on Thursday night at Arvest Ballpark. Grant Gambrell and Coleman Picard each punched out five Tulsa batters in the contest. The Naturals have racked up the second-most strikeouts in the Texas League since August 2, fanning 348 hitters over 34 games. NWA trails Springfield during that stretch, who has struck out 383 batters. The Nats have posted double-digit strikeouts in seven of their past eight games and in six consecutive contests when Canyon Brown is behind the plate.

Angel in the Infield... Angel Acosta went 4-for-4 with an RBI double in the Naturals' 3-2 loss to Tulsa on Thursday night. Acosta set a career high with four hits in as many plate appearances. The lefty collected his third multi-hit game with the Naturals over 13 games with the team. Acosta advanced to Double-A on August 20 after playing 59 games for High-A Quad Cities this season. With the River Bandits, Acosta hit .286 with a .371 on-base percentage. His previous career high in hits was three, which he reached four times with Quad Cities in 2026.

Perfect Picard... Coleman Picard shined in his Double-A debut on Thursday evening at Arvest Ballpark. Picard spun four perfect innings in relief, setting down all 12 Drillers he faced to keep it a one-run deficit for Northwest Arkansas. The right-hander recorded five strikeouts and helped Naturals pitching combine to retire the final 13 Tulsa batters of the ballgame. Picard advanced to NWA after pitching for both Single-A Columbia and High-A Quad Cities this season. In seven appearances with the River Bandits, Picard posted a 3.38 ERA across 10.2 innings. Over eight starts and 12 appearances for the Fireflies, the righty went 2-2 with a 3.26 ERA and recorded 41 punchouts in 49.2 frames. Picard had the lowest ERA, WHIP (1.09), walks allowed (13) and hits allowed (41) out of all Columbia pitchers to throw as many innings as him.

Stellar Seventeen... Sam Kulasingam drew his team-leading 84th walk of the season and extended his on-base streak to 17 consecutive games in Thursday's 3-2 loss. Kulasingam holds the longest active streak on the team. The switch hitter has reached base safely in every game since August 20, slashing .323/.444/.569 (1.013 OPS) with 17 RBI and 18 runs scored during that span. His 84 free passes rank second in the Texas League and fourth in all of Double-A. Kulasingam's 17-game on-base streak is two shy of Luke Pelzer's season-high 19-game stretch from July 21 - August 14.

No SuSpence Needed... Spencer Nivens homered and connected on his club-leading 28th double of the year in Northwest Arkansas' 3-2 defeat to Tulsa on Thursday. Nivens hit his ninth long ball of the season on the first pitch of the bottom of the fourth - a line drive into the Naturals bullpen. The lefty doubled to left in the sixth to pick up his second extra-base hit of the night. Nivens has career highs this season in doubles, stolen bases (16), triples (4) and is four shy of his career high in hits that he set in 2025. Nivens hit a league-high 12 two-baggers in August, batting .330 over 24 games in the month. He's hitting .297 with a pair of doubles across nine games in September.

He's Bac... Steven Zobac is set to make his 13th start of the season for the Naturals, and he's been sharp since coming off the Injured List at the start of the month. Zobac has dealt a combined three perfect innings with seven strikeouts over his two starts in September. The right-hander looks to aid Northwest Arkansas in getting its first win of the week against Tulsa.

The Royals Family... The Kansas City Royals head to Fenway Park to start a three-game set with the Boston Red Sox. RHP Seth Lugo is on the mound, with first pitch at 6:10 PM CT. Triple-A Omaha faces the Indianapolis Indians (PIT) at Victory Field in Indiana. RHP Vince Velasquez (3-2) is set to make his ninth start and 11th appearance of the season for the Storm Chasers. First pitch is scheduled for 5:35 PM CT. High-A Quad Cities is coming off a 3-1 win on Thursday over the South Bend Cubs (CHC) in Game Two of the Midwest League West Division Series. With the victory, the River Bandits eliminated South Bend and advanced to the Midwest League Championship Series. Quad Cities will face the winner of the Great Lakes Loons (LAD) and Dayton Dragons (CIN) Friday night matchup in Game One of the championship series on Sunday.

THIS WEEK IN NATURALS BASEBALL

STARTING PITCHER

#29 STEVEN ZOBAC RHP
(1-6, 4.99 ERA)

HT: 6'2" WT: 205 Age: 25 (October 14, 2000)
Birthplace: San Jose, CA School: University of California
Acquired: 4th Round, 2022 Draft
Throws: Four Seam Fastball, Kick Changeup, Slider

Steven Zobac makes his 13th start of the season with the Naturals after beginning 2026 on the Injured List. The Royals' No. 14 prospect (MLB Pipeline) made his season debut on June 13 in North Little Rock, Arkansas. He allowed a run in 2.1 innings and punched out two Travelers in the Naturals' 1-0 loss. Zobac is coming off back-to-back perfect starts in limited action after coming back from his second IL stint. The right-hander has dealt a combined three perfect innings with seven strikeouts over his two outings against the Travelers last week. Zobac is set to make his third start against Tulsa of 2026 in Northwest Arkansas' 134th game of the season. Zobac is on the Royals' 40-man roster, the only player on the Naturals with that distinction.

2025 IN REVIEW: Zobac made 11 starts for NWA in 2025, but right knee patellar tendinitis hampered his season. The righty had a 7.68 ERA while opponents hit .357 against him. He still puled up strikeouts with 37 over 36.1 innings, but in 11 appearances in 2024 Steven logged nearly 20 more innings (36.1 in 2025, 55.1 in 2024).

AWARD WINNER: Zobac took home two awards following the 2024 season. He was named the Naturals' Pitcher of the Year during Spring Training, but the righty also won the coveted Paul Splittorff Award. The honor is given every year to the Royals' top pitcher in their minor league system. Along with the award, Zobac was invited to Kauffman Stadium to receive his prize during Futures night where he tried solving a Rubix Cube live on the Royals' TV pregame show with Joel Goldberg and Jeff Montgomery. For the record, Zobac couldn't solve the cube because it was broken, a fact that was confirmed by a young man in the audience who gave it a try.

ONE FOR THE HISTORY BOOKS: Zobac entered the Naturals history book in 2024 during his fifth appearance and fourth start after he was promoted to the team in July. Steven took the mound in Amarillo on August 7, and made one of the most dominant starts in NWA annals. Over 7.0 scoreless innings of work, the University of California product struck out 12 while allowing two hits. While the line is great, the special part is he only used 80 pitches (62 strikes) to accomplish the feat. His dozen strikeouts are tied for the second-most in team history behind Naturals HOFer, Danny Duffy, who struck out 13 while on rehab in 2013. Duffy, however, needed 93 pitches through 5.1 innings of work that day at Tulsa.

COLLEGE: Zobac attended the University of California where he was a two-way player for his first two seasons with the team. Zobac transitioned into a full-time starter in his Junior season (2022), getting used as a reliever for a stint before joining the rotation at the end of the season again. Went 4-4 with a 4.09 ERA in his final season with the Golden Bears, striking out 72 over 61.2 innings of work. As a sophomore he was used as a position player for 44 games and pitched in 14, slashing .240/.344/.359 with five homers and 20 RBI while going 2-2 with a 4.66 ERA and four saves.

PERSONAL: Went to High School at Valley Christian High School in San Jose, California... Hit .465 in high school while owning a 0.23 ERA and 75 strikeouts in 60.2 innings of work on the mound... Full name is Steven Reed Zobac... Parents are Susan and Kirk Zobac... Has a twin sister, Kacey, who played softball at the University of California led the team with 12 doubles in 2022 and was the team's catcher... Enjoys hunting and fishing. Zobac can solve a Rubix Cube in under 40 seconds.
