THIS DAY IN NATURALS HISTORY

On July 5, 2021, the Naturals defeated the Tulsa Drillers at ONEOK Field in Tulsa in a low-scoring affair. Jackson Kowar started the game, spinning 6.1 shutout frames while holding the Drillers to four hits and a walk with seven strikeouts while earning his first win of the season. Taylor Featherston homered in the ninth inning with two outs to extend the Naturals lead to 3-1 while Tyler Zuber earned his second save of the year, throwing 1.1 innings while allowing two hits with two strikeouts to help the Naturals improve to 29-43 on the year.

Fell on the Fourth... The Naturals fell 3-2 to the Corpus Christi Hooks on Independence Day at Arvest Ballpark. Northwest Arkansas got off to an early start on offense with Carson Roccaforte's double on the first pitch he saw. Colton Becker bunted for a single and Roccaforte scored on an error at first when Hooks starter Trey Dombroski flipped the ball to first, but was deflected into right field. Jorge Alfaro then knocked in Becker with a sacrifice fly on a line drive to left. Corpus Christi tied the game at two in the fourth, and took the lead in the fifth. Brandon Johnson and Zachary Cawyer combined for 4.1 scoreless, hitless innings in relief of Félix Arronde. Johnson punched out four batters in 2.1 scoreless frames and Cawyer went six up, six down while striking out the side in the ninth. NWA got the tying run aboard in the final frame, but failed to score and fell 3-2 in the penultimate game of the series. The Naturals go for the series split on Sunday afternoon, with Steven Zobac making his second start of the week against Corpus Christi.

A Becker's Dozen... Colton Becker went 2-for-3 with a walk in the Naturals' 3-2 loss to the Hooks on Saturday night. Becker extended his on-base streak to 12 consecutive games in the process, which is the longest current streak on the Naturals. The righty has the 10th longest on-base streak in the Texas League. He has hit safely in eight of the 12 games during the streak. Out of all players in the Texas League to have played in 50 or more games, Becker ranks 11th with a .388 on-base percentage this season.

Can't Touch This... Brandon Johnson dealt 2.1 scoreless innings in relief on Independence Day against Corpus Christi. The right-hander struck out four batters, tied for his season high, and issued one walk. Johnson didn't allow a hit, which marked his sixth straight hitless outing. Johnson became the first Naturals pitcher this season to reach a streak of six consecutive hitless appearances. The right-hander hasn't allowed a run in his last six outings, and has allowed just one baserunner over that span, retiring 20 of 21 batters. During the six-game stretch, which goes back to June 20, Johnson has spun 6.2 frames of scoreless, hitless ball. He's recorded six strikeouts in the span and has one hold.

Southpaw Struggles... The Naturals plated one earned run over six innings against LHP Trey Dombroski on Saturday evening at Arvest Ballpark. Their struggles against left-handed starters this season continued, falling to 5-17 on the year when facing a southpaw. Against lefties, Northwest Arkansas ranks last in the Texas League in hits, home runs, RBI, on-base percentage and slugging percentage. The club is hitting .194 against southpaws in 2026.

Zach Attack... Zachary Cawyer retired all six batters he faced on Saturday night against the Hooks. The right-hander induced a pair of ground-outs in the eighth, and struck out the side in the ninth. Cawyer has made three appearances this week at Arvest Ballpark, and hasn't allowed a run over 3.2 frames. The right-hander has recorded five punch-outs and has given up one hit, the only baserunner he's allowed in the series. Cawyer dealt 1.1 innings in Tuesday's series opener, recorded a hold on Thursday and finished things off for the pitching staff on Saturday with two scoreless frames.

Hey Now, You're an All-Star... Bobby Witt Jr. was named the American League's starting shortstop in the 2026 MLB All-Star Game. Witt Jr. received his third consecutive All-Star selection, and earned his first career All-Star Game start. The shortstop is hitting .286 and has 29 stolen bases, which leads the league. Witt Jr. also leads the AL with a 4.5 WAR (Baseball-Reference). The superstar shortstop played for the Naturals during the 2021 season. In 61 games, Witt Jr. hit .295 with a .939 OPS. He hit 16 homers and swiped 14 bags for Northwest Arkansas. At the time of his promotion to Triple-A Omaha, Witt Jr. led the Double-A Central in total bases (131) and RBI (51). He was named Baseball America Minor League Player of the Year for the 2021 season.

The Royals Family... The Kansas City Royals host the Philadelphia Phillies in the second game of a three-game set at Kauffman Stadium. Former Naturals RHP Luinder Avila is on the hill for Kansas City, with first pitch at 2:00 PM CT. Triple-A Omaha hosts the Indianapolis Indians (PIT) at 2:05 PM CT in the series finale. RHP Henry Williams, who started Opening Day for the Naturals, gets the ball for the Storm Chasers. High-A Quad Cities hosts the Cedar Rapids Royals (MIN) at Modern Woodmen Park in Davenport, Iowa. RHP Emmanuel Reyes (6-3, 3.76) toes the slab for the River Bandits, with a 1:00 PM CT first pitch. Single-A Columbia hosts the final game of a six-game set against the Fredericksburg Nationals (WSH) at Segra Park. First pitch is at 4:05 PM CT in Columbia, South Carolina. RHP Coleman Picard makes his second start and fourth appearance for the Fireflies.

STARTING PITCHER

#29 STEVEN ZOBAC RHP
(0-2, 6.28 ERA)

HT: 6'2" WT: 205 Age: 25 (October 14, 2000)
Birthplace: San Jose, CA School: University of California
Acquired: 4th Round, 2022 Draft
Throws: Four Seam Fastball, Kick Changeup, Slider

Steven Zobac makes his fifth start of the season with the Naturals after beginning 2026 on the IL. The Royals' No. 11 prospect (MLB Pipeline) made his season debut on June 13 in North Little Rock, Arkansas. He allowed a run in 2.1 innings and punched out two Travelers in the Naturals' 1-0 loss. Zobac is making his second start of the week against Corpus Christi. In Tuesday's series opener, Zobac dealt a season-high five innings and allowed four runs on three hits. The right-hander took his second loss of the year in the Naturals' 8-3 defeat. Zobac is on the Royals' 40-man roster, the only player on the Naturals with that distinction.

2025 IN REVIEW: Zobac made 11 starts for NWA in 2025, but right knee patellar tendinitis hampered his season. The righty had a 7.68 ERA while opponents hit .357 against him. He still puled up strikeouts with 37 over 36.1 innings, but in 11 appearances in 2024 Steven logged nearly 20 more innings (36.1 in 2025, 55.1 in 2024).

AWARD WINNER: Zobac took home two awards following the 2024 season. He was named the Naturals' Pitcher of the Year during Spring Training, but the righty also won the coveted Paul Splittorff Award. The honor is given every year to the Royals' top pitcher in their minor league system. Along with the award, Zobac was invited to Kauffman Stadium to receive his prize during Futures night where he tried solving a Rubix Cube live on the Royals' TV pregame show with Joel Goldberg and Jeff Montgomery. For the record, Zobac couldn't solve the cube because it was broken, a fact that was confirmed by a young man in the audience who gave it a try.

ONE FOR THE HISTORY BOOKS: Zobac entered the Naturals history book in 2024 during his fifth appearance and fourth start after he was promoted to the team in July. Steven took the mound in Amarillo on August 7, and made one of the most dominant starts in NWA annals. Over 7.0 scoreless innings of work, the University of California product struck out 12 while allowing two hits. While the line is great, the special part is he only used 80 pitches (62 strikes) to accomplish the feat. His dozen strikeouts are tied for the second-most in team history behind Naturals HOFer, Danny Duffy, who struck out 13 while on rehab in 2013. Duffy, however, needed 93 pitches through 5.1 innings of work that day at Tulsa.

COLLEGE: Zobac attended the University of California where he was a two-way player for his first two seasons with the team. Zobac transitioned into a full-time starter in his Junior season (2022), getting used as a reliever for a stint before joining the rotation at the end of the season again. Went 4-4 with a 4.09 ERA in his final season with the Golden Bears, striking out 72 over 61.2 innings of work. As a sophomore he was used as a position player for 44 games and pitched in 14, slashing .240/.344/.359 with five homers and 20 RBI while going 2-2 with a 4.66 ERA and four saves.

PERSONAL: Went to High School at Valley Christian High School in San Jose, California... Hit .465 in high school while owning a 0.23 ERA and 75 strikeouts in 60.2 innings of work on the mound... Full name is Steven Reed Zobac... Parents are Susan and Kirk Zobac... Has a twin sister, Kacey, who played softball at the University of California led the team with 12 doubles in 2022 and was the team's catcher... Enjoys hunting and fishing. Zobac can solve a Rubix Cube in under 40 seconds.
