11 Angry Men:

Gastonia lost to High Point for just the second time this year on Wednesday night, stranding 11 runners on base in the 9-4 defeat. The Club recorded 11 hits to the Rockers' 10, but left multiple runners on in five separate frames. Gastonia stranded eight runners in scoring position throughout the contest. The inability to drive runners in combined with Ryan Conroy allowing eight earned runs in four innings led to the Club falling to 9-2 on the year against High Point.

Searching for the Wright Stuff:

Mike Wright Jr. gets the ball for Gastonia in the rubber match against High Point on Thursday night. The former big leaguer is coming off back-to-back rough outings, allowing 13 runs (11 earned) over 11 innings in his past two starts for the Club. In three starts against the Rockers this year, Wright Jr. is 1-1 with a 7.31 ERA, walking six and striking out nine. The right-hander looks to bounce back Thursday and help Gastonia improve to 10-2 against the Rockers on the season.

Wylie Coyote:

Unlike Wile. E, the "Looney Tunes" character, Justin Wylie's had no trouble catching up to a fast object moving past him. The Gastonia second baseman has hit 25 home runs on the year, which is tied for the most in the Atlantic League. His 25th came on Wednesday against High Point in the 9-4 loss. Wylie is slashing .281/.393/.612, which totals an OPS of 1.005. He also leads the team in walks (52) and runs scored (64).

73% of the Time it Works, Every Time:

73 is a special number. As Sheldon Cooper explained in "The Big Bang Theory," it's the 21st prime number. Its mirror, 37, is the 12th, and its mirror, 21, is the product of multiplying 7 and 3. Cooper refers to it as the "best number." And this was long before he knew that Gastonia would win 73% of its first half games in 2024. The Club ended the opening half with the highest winning percentage (.730) in a single half in ALPB history, topping Southern Maryland's .727 mark in 2022. Gastonia went 46-17, recording seven walk-offs, going 8-1 against the rival High Point Rockers and winning the final eight games of the half to make history. Gastonia won 16 of the 19 series it played in the first half.
